The Maple Leaf Swimming Club was founded in November, 1933, and has steadily continued to grow, until at the present date it ranks among the largest swimming organizations "for ladies and girls" in this Section.

The aim of the club is to encourage the art of swimming amongst its members, and the appointment of Ted Glynn as official coach early in the club's inception has been productive of splendid results. Many non-swimmers have been taught to swim. Speedsters have every chance in the club to improve their strokes, and new members are cordially welcomed. Our coach is still very active and much credit is due to Ted. Learn with the Maple Leafs. Consult with Ted about your swimming problems.

Membership Fee: Junior, $1.00; Senior, $2.00.

Vice-President, Miss H. M. Hine. President, Mrs. S. C .Lloyd .-Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Dorothy A. Lloyd.

CLUB MEETS EVERY THURSDAY, 6-7 P.M.

Compliments and Thanks to all the Clubs and our many friends for their support.
